Greetings Everyone!

What a trip! I don't mean just our mission trip to Santiago, Chile, I mean this entire summer of activities! It's been an amazing few months of activities here at Sulphur Spring. I hope you've seen how God has been moving in our midst. Just in case you missed it, allow me to fill you in!

Automatically, my mind goes to our international mission trip. Five of us from Sulphur Spring joined with 4 others from sister churches to serve the people of Gethsemane, Cordillera, and Gennesaret Baptist Churches of Santiago, Chile. What a blessing! Our days were filled with construction, outreach, Vacation Bible School, and worship. Bro. Curtis and I both had the privilege of preaching in these respective churches. It truly was a great blessing to be able to join with these special people and be used as agents of encouragement.

That's what mission trips are all about anyway. Sure, you go somewhere, and you work in whatever way the church you are serving needs. But really, you're there to encourage a church family that's struggling. Isn't that what the body of Christ is all about? Aren't we supposed to lift each other up? When things get overwhelming to you individually, don't you need someone to come alongside you in some way to encourage you? The church body is the same way! Our calling is to edify one another. Isaiah 61:3 says, "To all mourn in Israel, he will give a crown of beauty for ashes, a joyous blessing instead of mourning, festive praise instead of despair." And here is the kicker: God uses you and me to bring those blessings to others, whether they're right here in our own church family or in Santiago!

There's one more thing I want to mention regarding this trip. The pastor specifically mentioned his surprise that we were from different churches. He said we acted like we were from the same congregation, the same family. We worked together so well. We cared for, laughed with and at each other. We encouraged each other in the work. Curtis, Laura Benton, and Ella had double duty, and they handled it like true servants! I want to thank all our team for their hard work. I want to thank you all for your prayers and support. God knew exactly who He wanted on this trip, and I was very grateful for the contribution each person gave.

Now it's time to focus our attention forward. School is about to start again. The new church year is about to begin. Changes will happen here at SSBC. So everyone, make it your aim to be an encourager!

Blessings!

Bro. Mike
