Greetings Everyone!

10 years! It's hard to believe God has allowed our family to serve Sulphur Spring since April 2016. Time has gone by so quickly! And so much has changed for my crew and for our church family. We've seen people come and go, but more than that, we've seen how God has reshaped how we do church. I am truly grateful for all the support I've received in following the Lord to be more mission minded. It's a blessing to see how much you've supported all the mission efforts through giving and going! From my family to all of you: Thank you!

Now, let me say: Happy Easter! I know that sounds like a trivial way of recognizing this holiday, but I really do feel like we have a reason to be happy about Easter! This is the day we celebrate our risen Savior and Lord! It really is a blessing to be able to gather together for the sole reason of praising God for the gift of Jesus doing all he did on our behalf. And when I think about what the resurrection means, I honestly get emotional. Maybe it's because I'm getting older and things of this life mean less to me while the things of my future mean so much more. I don't think too much about dying, but I do think more about what heaven will be like. Some of you probably do as well. What a blessing it is to agree with scripture about the certainty of what lies ahead!

I'll tell you something else I love about Easter. I absolutely love the sunrise service! When we gather at daybreak and watch the sunrise over the cemetery, it's a special reminder that there is no grave that can hold you. There's not enough dirt to keep the child of God from meeting the Lord in the air! I love proclaiming the truth of God's word that Jesus came out of the grave and insured eternal life for all who have placed their faith in the resurrected Christ!

As you look at this newsletter, Holy Week is upon us. It's a privilege to be asked to preach the first message of this special time at Providence Baptist Church. I pray that every time I step to the podium, I represent Christ well. But I'm also reminded that each of us has a great responsibility to represent Christ Well. For me, it's primarily the preaching of His word. For you, it's everything you do on a daily basis. Every morning, I start my day with reading from God's word and prayer. I know that I'm going into battle and I want to be ready. I pray that each of you has your own way to "suit up" for whatever you face. Take advantage of Holy Week as an opportunity to serve the Lord in some special way!

Finally, I want to say thank you to everyone for all the years of love and support I have been given since I started working at SSBC. I truly consider myself and my family very blessed to walk together with each of you!

Blessings!

Bro. Mike
